1 Joan Easton

Working in watercolour, florals, birds, and local scenes are the focus of my work. Originals and cards will be available.

Bonny Myers 4

Realistic acrylic and watercolour artist depicting scenes mostly from Vancouver Island and environs.

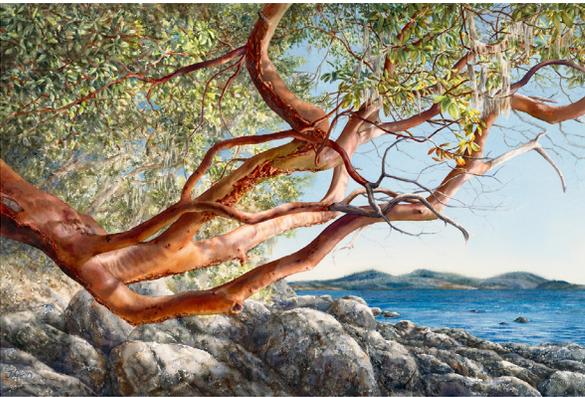

2 Joanie McCorry

Discover the new magic Joanie has created via her three-dimensional paper castings, collages and photos. New greeting cards on display. @peridotulips

Carole Finn 5

Canadian painter of land, water, and its inhabitants; art teacher, mentor, curator. Educated OCADU, York U Fine Arts, HHSAD. Influenced by Davis Hockney, Wolf Kahn. carolefinnartist.com

3 Jennifer Olson

Jennifer's watercolour paintings are unique in their strong contrast, quality of light and luminosity. Her bold pigments and spontaneous textures capture still life, landscape and architectural subjects.

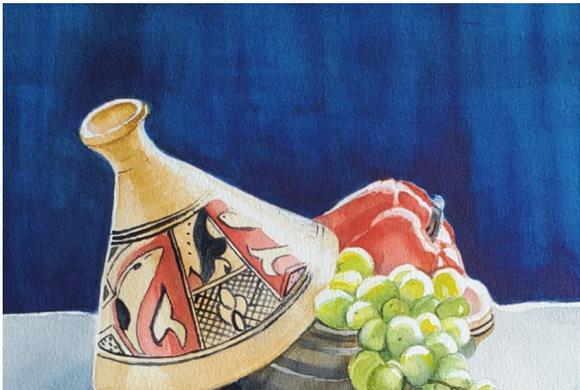

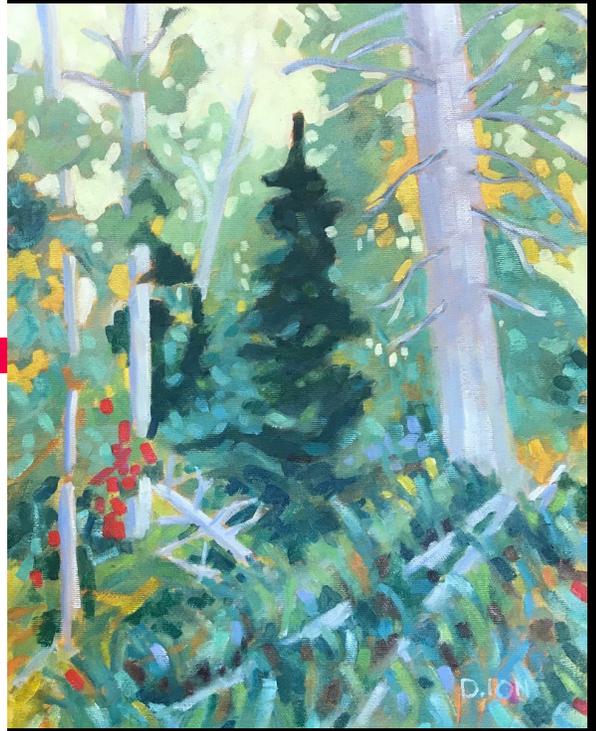

6 Sue Leather

I incorporate my love of colour into life art of florals, animals and homes. Detailed small works and bold acrylic paint are my style.

7 Donna Ion

Paintings in small and large format celebrating our beautiful west coast forests in my unique style will be available as well as greeting cards. dionionart.com

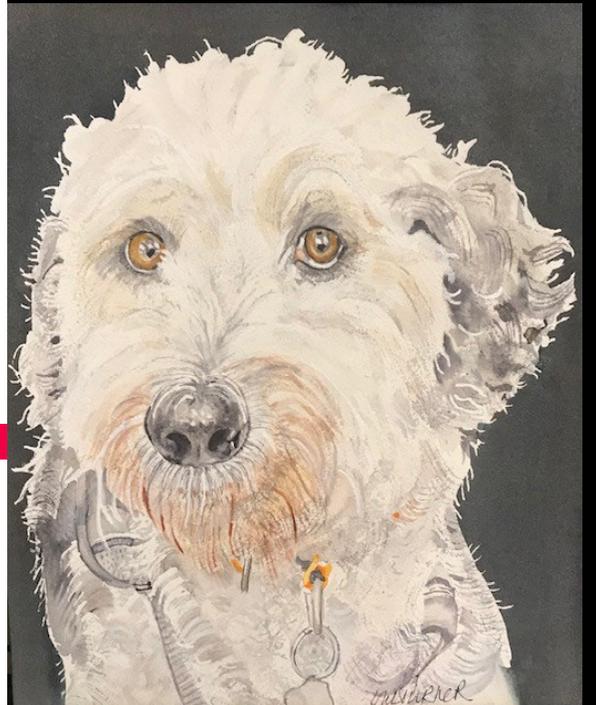

8 Myra Baynton

A selection of watercolour and acrylic paintings that represent local and international settings. These works capture the appeal and vibrancy of nature and travel.

9 Vicky Turner

Real Estate agent turned artist! Watercolours including travel and culinary themes.

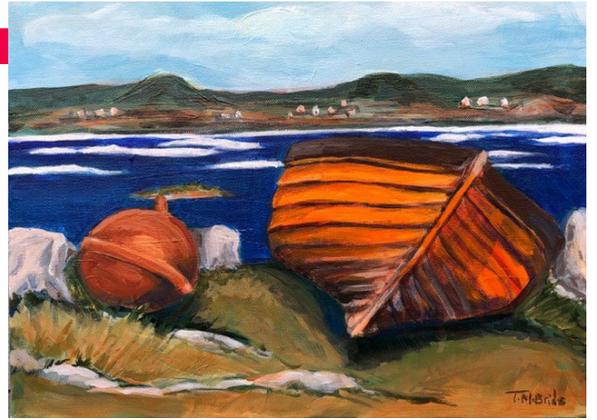

10 Avis Rasmussen

See my printmaking show of new originals plus favourite linocuts, woodcuts, monoprints. Also reproduced with poems in "Images On The Way," other chap-books, cards, reliefs.

Terry McBride 11

Painting in acrylics and watercolour, I like to explore colour and shapes in both landscape and still life.

12 Derek Rees

Capturing photographic images throughout Oak Bay and surrounding areas for the past six years to present - these have finally gone to print.

13 Flo-Elle Watson

Using a canvas of white porcelain, Flo-Elle paints with an under-glaze paint, an original, permanent, food safe, oven and microwave friendly, functional piece of art.

Terry Vatr 14

Terry works primarily in book arts, writing, photography and print-making. Her original prints have shown in juried exhibition in Canada, the U.S., Germany and Spain. @the_art_caravan

15 Arlene Davey

In Chinese Brush Painting, the choice of subject matter, simplicity of composition and direct manner of execution bring life to this traditional medium.

All Public Health Guidelines will be observed (mask wearing and vaccine card required).
