

Street Name	Type	Status	Description
Alexander	Street	Historic	Named for developer H.B. Alexander. Now Dewdney Avenue.
Allenby	Street	Current	Originally Robert Street to the west of the Exhibition Grounds and Wakefield Street to the east of the Grounds. The present name was given for Field Marshall Viscount Allenby following World War I.
Anscomb	Place	Current	Named for Herbert Anscomb, 1892-1972, a former reeve of Oak Bay (1925), mayor of Victoria (1928-31), and a cabinet minister in the provincial government.
Armstrong	Avenue	Current	Possibly early landowner.
Ashdowne	Road	Current	Named by Hudson's Bay Company Land Department, Winnipeg (Manitoba).
Avondale	Road	Current	Named by Hudson's Bay Company Land Department, Winnipeg (Manitoba).
Babbacombe	Place	Historic	South of 951 Beach Drive to water. Now closed.
Barkley	Terrace	Current	Named for Captain Charles William Barkley, an early explorer in local waters (ca. 1787). Formerly part of Highland Drive and Patricia Avenue.
Bartlett	Avenue	Current	Named for Alfred T. Bartlett, an early resident of Oak Bay.
Bay	Road	Historic	Now Cedar Hill Cross Road.
Beach	Drive	Current	Originally three sections - Beach (First Street) from intersection of Dallas Road and Foul Bay Road (Victoria City boundary) along to the bend by the Victoria Golf Course; "Mount Baker Avenue" from that point to just beyond Bowker Creek, where it ended; and The Uplands portion was called Shore Road. By 1908, it was called Beach Drive all the way to Uplands, then Shore Road.
Beach	Avenue	Historic	Now Broom Road.
Beachway	Avenue	Historic	From Bells Road (now part of Musgrave Street) to city limits, now Cavendish Avenue.
Beaver	Street	Historic	Original name of Beaverbrooke Street. Name changed at the request of the Victoria Postmaster.
Beaverbrooke	Street	Current	Originally called Beaver Street. Name changed at the request of the Victoria Postmaster. Possibly named after small stream in the area rather than Lord Beaverbrooke.
Bee	Street	Current	Origin unknown.
Beech	Road	Historic	Found in 1911 Census. May be misspelling of Beach.
Bellevue	Street	Historic	Now Beresford Place.
Bells	Road	Historic	Now part of Musgrave Street.
Belmont	Street	Historic	Now Satellite Street.
Beresford	Street	Current	Originally Bellevue Street. Renamed for Admiral, Lord Charles Beresford, one time First Lord of the Admiralty in Britain, (1846-1919).
Bold Point	Lane	Historic	Was Island View Lane and later became Radcliffe Lane.
Boundary	Road	Historic	Now Falkland Road.
Bourchier	Street	Historic	Now Goldsmith Street.
Bowker	Place	Current	Derived from the name of the J.S. Bowker residence, Bowker Place (formerly Oak Bay Farm) presently at 1931 Bowker Place.
Bowker	Avenue	Current	Named for John Sylvester Bowker, 1867-1935, early resident of the District and son-in-law of John Tod. Originally Oak Bay Road.
Brighton	Avenue	Current	Originally two names: Cowan Avenue and Brighton Place (Monterey to Transit). Possibly named for Brighton, England.
Brighton	Place	Historic	One of the original names for Brighton Avenue along with Cowan Avenue. Brighton Place was the block between Oliver Street (historic name St. Andrew Street) and St. Patrick Street. It was to be left as a green space (square shaped). The municipality sold off the land in the 60s and four homes were built - two on Oliver Street and two on St. Patrick Street.
Broom	Road	Current	This was originally Beach Avenue. Name changed to avoid confusion with Beach Drive.
Burdick	Avenue	Current	Early settler, Newton Townley Burdick was an alderman and reeve of Oak Bay in 1918.
Burns	Street	Historic	After Scottish poet Robert Burns. Now Elgin Road.
Byng	Street	Current	Originally Church Road. Renamed for Lord Byng of Vimy (WWI). Also called Oakland(s) Road.
Byron	Street	Current	For the English poet, Baron George Gordon Byron, better known as Lord Byron (1788-1824).

Street Name	Type	Status	Description
Cadboro Bay	Road	Current	A shortening of the name Cadborough, first vessel to enter the bay of that name (c. 1842) in the service of the Hudson's Bay Company. See also Willow Crescent.
Calvert	Crescent	Historic	Anderson Hill to Earn Street - closed for Elkington Close - now part of Centennial Trail.
Camus	Lane	Historic	Camus Lane is named after the indigenous plant. This lane was unnamed until approximately 2005. Before that it was just an unnamed laneway. It is historic in the fact that it follows the survey line delineating the south end of HBC's Uplands Farm and was used as a pathway from the beach to the HBC trading post on what is now Nottingham Park.
Cardiff	Place	Current	Named for Cardiff, Wales.
Cardigan	Road	Current	Named for Cardigan, Wales.
Carnarvon	Street	Current	Named for Carnarvon, Wales. Formerly Gordon Street.
Carrick	Street	Current	Continuation of a street in Saanich with the same name. Originally Fourth Street.
Cavendish	Avenue	Current	Possibly named for William Cavendish, Earl of Newcastle. Originally Beachway Avenue.
Cedar Hill Cross	Road	Current	Originally called Bay Road.
Central	Avenue	Current	Central location, dividing south Oak Bay.
Charlton	Street	Historic	Prior to 1928. From Foul Bay Road to Fairgrounds. Now Newton Street.
Chaucer	Street	Current	After English poet Geoffrey Chaucer (c.1343-1400).
Chelsea	Place	Current	Named by HBC, possibly for Chelsea, England.
Chiltern	Place	Current	Named by HBC, possibly for Chiltern Hills in England.
Christie	Way	Current	For Victoria alderman, the late Mrs. Margaret Christie, who was responsible for the subdivision of city-owned property once part of the lane of the Old Men's Home (Mountain View) on Hampshire Hill. Councillor from 1944-54.
Church	Road	Historic	Now Byng Street.
Clive	Drive	Current	Named for Sir Clive Phillips-Wolley, who built a large home, Woodhall, at the upper end of the street in 1891.
Connaught	Avenue	Historic	Was Olympia Avenue. Now Estevan Avenue.
Cookman	Street	Current	Probably named for an early resident.
Cotswold	Road	Current	Named for Cotswold Hills, England. Following the HBC tradition of naming streets for British places.
Cowan	Avenue	Historic	One of the original names for Brighton Avenue along with Brighton Place. Cowan Avenue went from Foul Bay Road to Victoria Avenue.
Cranleigh	Place	Current	Name taken from Cranleigh House School (formerly the Willows Hotel).
Cranmore	Road	Current	Contraction of names of early families Crane and Blakemore. Originally called Tod Road leading to John Sylvester Bowker's Oak Bay Farm. NB There is currently another Tod(d) Road.
Crescent	Road	Current	Name suggested by the shape of the road.
Crestview	Road	Current	View from the crest at upper portion of this road.
Cubbon	Drive	Current	A subdivision of the former Joseph Pemberton Jr. property. Named for the developer Harold Cubban.
Currie	Road	Current	Originally Longbranch Avenue, after New York resort town. Present name given for Lieutenant General, Sir Arthur Currie, C.B., K.C.M.G., commander of the Canadian forces, WWI.
Dalhousie	Street	Current	Originally in three sections: Thistle Street at the upper end; Margaret Street in the middle; and Seaview Avenue toward Beach Drive. Possibly to honour the Earl of Dalhousie, or after Dalhousie University in Halifax, Nova Scotia.
Deal	Road	Historic	Part of Cattle Point Loop/Scenic Drive. Also called Southdowne Road. Changed in 1928 when road not completed due to Uplands Park. 1908 Victoria map shows it as part of what is now the Cattle Point loop. Deal went from Beach directly to the waterfront (no loop). Southdowne Rd, between Beach and Landsdowne, is now wholly within Uplands park.
Deal	Street	Current	Possibly named for the borough of Deal in Kent, England.

Street Name	Type	Status	Description
Denison	Road	Current	Was to have been part of Highland Drive (now Barkley Terrace). Renamed for Napier Denison, 1866-1946, Dominion Government Meteorologist, at the time the observatory was constructed on Gonzales Hill. Denison was known to thousands of Victorians as "our weatherman."
Devon	Road	Current	Named for Devon, England.
Dewdney	Avenue	Current	After Edgar Dewdney, 1835-1916. Originally Alexander Avenue.
Dorset	Road	Current	Named for Dorset, England. Southern part to Beach Drive was called Meadow Road. Changed in 1928.
Dover	Road	Current	Named for Dover, England.
Dryfe	Street	Current	Possibly an early settler. Scottish place name.
Dufferin	Avenue	Current	Originally Scott Avenue. Named for Lord Dufferin, Governor General of Canada, 1872-1878.
Dundrum	Road	Current	Hudson's Bay Company name. A suburb of Dublin, Ireland.
Dunlevy	Street	Current	Named for Peter C. Dunlevy, an early settler prior to 1906. Originally Fourth Street, then Fuller's (Fuller?) Avenue (or Street) after early landowner.
Durham	Road	Historic	Uplands road on Oak Bay Municipality 1911 map. Not built. (North end of Shoreway near Cadboro Bay intersection.)
Earn	Street	Current	Part of Centennial Trail - Transit to Island Roads. Possibly after Loch Earn in Scotland.
Eastdowne	Road	Current	Another of the "downes" named by Hudson Bay Company. The portion of the road from Cadboro Bay Road to Haultain Street (Fairgrounds) was originally Willow Road.
Edgecliffe	Place	Current	Cul-de-sac subdivision named after the historic Edgecliffe estate (formerly 925 Foul Bay Road) where the road is situated.
Elgin	Road	Current	Originally Burns Street (for Scottish poet Robert Burns). May be named for Elgin, Scotland, or it could be named for Victor Alexander Bruce, 9th Earl of Elgin.
Elkington	Close	Current	After Dr. Elkington - dentist and owner of property prior to subdivision of 572 Island Road.
Empress	Street	Historic	Now Epworth Street.
Epworth	Street	Current	Originally named Empress Street. Possibly after village of Epworth, Lincolnshire, England.
Esplanade		Current	Originally Oak Bay Esplanade.
Estevan	Avenue	Current	Originally Olympia Avenue, later changed to Connaught Avenue. Present name may be for an early Spanish explorer, though could have been suggested by news reports of the arrival of the lighthouse tender C.G.S. Estevan in Victoria at the time of the name change.
Exeter	Road	Current	Named for Exeter, England.
Fair	Street	Current	Name originated from the agricultural fair held annually at the Willows Exhibition Grounds.
Falkland	Road	Current	Originally named Boundary Road. Present name commemorates the Battle of the Falkland Islands during World War I.
Fifth	Street	Historic	Now Musgrave Street.
First	Street	Historic	Section of Beach Drive from Dallas and Foul Bay Roads along to the bend by the Victoria Golf Course.
Florence	Street	Current	Origin unknown.
Foul Bay	Road	Current	From the bay of the same name. (This was spelled "Fowl" on some early charts.) The name was given to the bay by early mariners because its exposed position and rocky seabed provided a poor anchorage.
Fourth	Street	Historic	Now Dunlevy Street and also Carrick Street.
Frederick Norris	Road	Current	Named for former reeve (1954-58) Frederick E. Norris.
Frederick Norris	Place	Current	Named for former reeve (1954-58) Frederick E. Norris.
Front	Street	Historic	Now Penzance Road and Maquinna Road.
Fuller	Street	Historic	After Alfred Dixon Fuller, early developer who purchased much of the John Tod estate in 1879. Now Dunlevy Street.
Gibbs	Road	Current	Named for former reeve (1950-53) and MLA, P.A. Gibbs.
Glen	Avenue	Current	Named by Hudson's Bay Company. Now closed.

Street Name	Type	Status	Description
Goldsmith	Street	Current	Originally Bouchier Street. Named for Irish/English poet Oliver Goldsmith (1730-1774).
Gonzales	Avenue	Historic	Two different roads. One near the Chinese Cemetery now called Quimper Street (changed in 1928). The other is a section of Granite Street.
Goodwin	Street	Current	Originally Nile Street.
Gordon	Street	Historic	Now Carnarvon Street.
Granite	Street	Current	A section was originally called Gonzales Street.
Greatford	Place	Current	May have been named for an early settler or village in England.
Guernsey	Street	Current	Originally Katherine Street. Named for the island of Guernsey in the English Channel, birthplace of the father of John Le Gresley who built a home at 2184 Guernsey Street in 1912.
Hall	Road	Current	Named for Frederick James Hall, an early resident of the area.
Hamiota	Street	Current	Possibly Hamiota, Saskatchewan.
Hampshire	Road	Current	Originally Junction Road. Named by early farmer William Noble after his birthplace Hampshire, England.
Hampshire	Terrace	Current	Named for Hampshire, England - birthplace of early farmer William Noble.
Harlow	Drive	Current	Origin unknown.
Haro		Current	Unpaved, off Cedar Hill Cross (X) Road on University land.
Haro		Historic	Now Rosario Street.
Hattie	Street	Historic	Now Pentland Road.
Haultain	Street	Current	This is a continuation of a street that starts in the City of Victoria and passes through a portion of the District of Saanich. Origin of name is unknown. First named Third Street in Oak Bay.
Hazel	Street	Current	May have been named for an early medical doctor of same surname who was associated with the Royal Jubilee Hospital.
Henderson	Road	Current	Named for William Henderson, second reeve of Oak Bay, 1909-11.
Heron	Street	Current	Originally Third Street (see Haultain Street). Present name may be derived from the bird indigenous to the local waterfront.
Herrick	Street	Historic	Named after James "Herrick" McGregor, surveyor. He lived at the corner of Newport Avenue and St. David Street. He was one of the men behind the Oak Harbour Plan (deep sea harbour and hotel) with Joseph Pemberton, circa 1891. Now Satellite Street.
Hewlett	Place	Current	Named for H.F. Hewlett, early Oak Bay reeve, 1923-24. Originally part of Mitchell Street.
Highland	Drive	Historic	Now Barkley Terrace (was to continue to Denison Road but not completed [Oak Bay Municipality map 1911]).
Hood	Lane	Current	Possibly for HMS Hood. Originally Rainier Lane.
Hudson	Avenue		Now Sutherland Road.
Humber	Road	Current	Origin unknown. Family name, river in England.
Inglewood	Terrace	Current	Origin unknown. Place name.
Island	Road	Current	Possibly named as the road leading to Trial Island.
Island View	Lane	Historic	Original name of Radcliffe Lane.
Junction	Road	Historic	Now Hampshire Road, south of Oak Bay Avenue.
Jutland		Historic	Now Sutherland Road.
Katherine	Street	Historic	Now Guernsey Street.
Kelsey	Place	Current	Named for Hudson's Bay Company explorer Henry Kelsey, the "Little Giant," 1667-1724.
Kendal	Avenue	Current	Named by Hudson's Bay Company. English name meaning "valley of the Kent."
King George	Terrace	Current	Named for King George V. Part near Beach Drive originally called Sunrise Avenue.
Kings	Road	Current	A continuation of a Victoria road of the same name.
Kinross	Avenue	Current	Scottish place name.
Lafayette	Street	Current	Origin unknown.
Lansdowne	Road	Current	Named by Hudson's Bay Company after Governor General Marquess of Lansdowne (1883-1888).
Larch	Street	Historic	Now Plumer Street.

Street Name	Type	Status	Description
Larkdowne	Road	Current	HBC named street ending in "downe."
Laurel	Street	Historic	Now Victoria Avenue, south of McNeill Avenue.
Lincoln	Road	Current	Originally two sections: the northern end was called Seagull Avenue and the southern end was Second Street. Possibly for Lincoln, England (or Lincolnshire, England). Historic, unfinished portion through Uplands Park.
Linkleas	Avenue	Current	Part of Golf Links Park Subdivision on the Lea of the Links.
Lion		Historic	Off Macquinna at the end of Lorne Terrace. Found in Fire Insurance book of Victoria, Volume Three.
Long Branch	Avenue	Historic	After Longbranch, a resort town in New York State. Now Currie Road.
Lorne	Terrace	Current	Honours the Marquess of Lorne, Canada's 4th Governor General.
Lulie	Street	Current	Originally Warwick, then St. Lulie Street. Conflict with St. Louis Street caused the "St." to be dropped, possibly after Lulie Gore.
Lyn	Crescent	Current	Subdivision off Central Avenue, c. 1950.
Maquinna	Road	Current	May have been named for Chief Maquinna whom Captain Cook met on his first exploratory voyage into Nootka Sound. Originally Front Street on Harling Point. Penzance Road was also part of Front Street.
Margaret	Street	Historic	Now a portion of Dalhousie Road, the middle portion. From Cadboro Bay Road to Musgrave Street.
Margate	Avenue	Current	Named for Margate, England.
Marne	Street	Current	Commemoration of the famous Battle of the Marne in WWI.
Marrion	Street	Current	For Robert Marrion, a settler prior to 1906.
Mayhew	Street	Current	After the Honourable Robert Mayhew, 1880-1971. Reeve of Oak Bay 1935-37, MP for Victoria, 1937-52; Federal Fisheries Minister, 1948-52; and First Ambassador to Japan, 1952-54.
McGregor	Heights	Historic	Closed. From Granite Street to Brighton Avenue. Named after subdivision developer James Herrick McGregor.
McLaren	Avenue	Current	Named for dairy farmer Duncan McLaren.
McNeill	Avenue	Current	Named for Captain William Henry McNeill of the Hudson's Bay Company and early landowner at Shoal (now McNeill) Bay.
Meadow	Place	Current	Descriptive of surrounding farming area, off Foul Bay Road.
Meadow	Road	Historic	Uplands boundary from South Circle (Midland Road) to Shore Road (Beach Drive). Now part of Dorset Road. Changed in 1928.
Mid-Downe	Road	Current	Another Hudson Bay's Company name ending in "downe". Mid-line of the subdivision.
Midland	Circle	Current	Turn around for BC Electric Tram in the Uplands. Historic plans show a north and south circle, connected by Midland Way.
Midland	Road	Current	Originally Midland Way, traversed by BC Electric Company Uplands streetcar tracks, and Midland Circle where streetcars turned for return trip to the City of Victoria.
Midland	Way	Historic	Connection between North and South Midland Circles. Now Midland Road.
Milton	Street	Current	For John Milton, the English poet (1608-74).
Mitchell	Street	Current	Named for an early resident (c. 1908). Formerly Cowan [?? Cowan is now Brighton]. Also included in Hewlett Place.
Monteith	Street	Current	Possibly for W.B. Monteith, an early resident.
Monterey	Avenue	Current	Originally called St. George Street north of McNeill Avenue. Changed to the present name in 1921.
Monterey	Crescent	Historic	Was to be a street running from the bend in Monterey Avenue (at Bowker Creek where it turns into St. Ann Street) over to the end of Lulie St onto Monteith St. It was never opened as that is now Fireman's Park. The Firehall was opened in 1939.
Mount Baker	Avenue	Historic	Section of Beach Drive from Victoria Golf Course (or Windsor Road?) to just beyond Bowker Creek, where it ended. By 1908 the section appears as Beach Drive
Mountjoy	Avenue	Current	Named after Mountjoy, the estate of Frederick Despard Pemberton.
Mowat	Street	Current	After an early resident.
Murdoch	Crescent	Current	After former reeve George Murdoch.

Street Name	Type	Status	Description
Musgrave	Street	Current	Originally Fifth Street. Named after John Musgrave principal of the early real estate firm of Swinerton & Musgrave, and Commodore of the Royal Victoria Yacht Club.
Myrtle	Street	Historic	Now Victoria Avenue, north of McNeill Avenue.
Neil	Street	Current	Originally Thompson Avenue west of Cadboro Bay Road. Changed to West Thompson Avenue in 1939. When the former Willows Fairgrounds was subdivided, a new road was created in alignment with Neil Street in Saanich and with West Thompson Avenue. Renamed Neil Street.
Newport	Avenue	Current	After resort area Newport Beach, Long Island. Part of a group of streets named after resort destinations.
Newton	Street	Current	This new road created in the subdivision of the former fairgrounds also aligned with a Saanich street named Newton. Probably named for an early resident. A portion of this road previously existed between Foul Bay Road and the fairgrounds and was known as Charlton Street, prior to 1928.
Nile	Street	Historic	Now Goodwin Street.
Norfolk	Road	Current	Original name. This was changed to Norwich in 1928 and later changed back to the original name, after Norfolk, England.
Norfolk	Avenue	Historic	Historic road on Exhibition Grounds. Access road from Cadboro Bay Road to stables.
North Hampshire	Road	Historic	Hampshire Road north of Oak Bay Avenue.
Norwich		Historic	Historic Uplands street. Changed from Norfolk Road in 1928 and later reversed.
Nottingham	Road	Current	Named for Nottingham, England. Formerly Somerset Road/Street/Avenue?
Oak Bay	Avenue	Current	Original name. Changed in 1913 to Pandora Avenue until a later council reversed the decision.
Oak Bay	Road	Historic	Now Bowker Avenue.
Oak Bay Esplanade		Historic	Now Esplanade.
Oakdowne	Road	Current	Named by Hudson's Bay Company. Another of the 'downe' roads.
Oakland(s)	Road	Historic	Now Byng/Plumer.
Ochil		Historic	Monterey Avenue near Central Avenue.
Oliver	Street	Current	Originally St. Andrew Street. Changed in 1921 and named for W.E. Oliver, first reeve of Oak Bay in 1906.
Olympia	Avenue	Historic	Now Estevan Avenue.
Orchard	Avenue	Current	Origin unknown.
Pacific	Avenue	Current	Suggested by proximity to ocean.
Pandora	Avenue	Historic	Oak Bay Avenue name change in 1913. Reversed back to Oak Bay Avenue at a later date. Possibly 1921?
Patio	Court	Current	California inspired five house cul-de-sac, north side of San Carlos.
Patricia	Avenue	Historic	Now Barkley Terrace.
Pattullo	Place	Current	Named for Thomas Dufferin (Duff) Pattullo (1873-1956), 22nd Premier of British Columbia and long time resident of Oak Bay.
Pelly	Place	Current	Named for Hudson's Bay Company Governor J.H. Pelly. He was Governor of HBC from 1822-52.
Pentland	Road	Current	Originally Hattie Street. Scottish place name.
Penzance	Road	Current	Possibly for Penzance, England. Originally Front Street on Harling Point. Maquinna Road was also part of Front Street.
Pleasant	Avenue	Historic	Now Roslyn Road.
Plumer	Street	Current	Formerly Church Road, Larch Street, and Oakland(s) Road. Named for Field Marshall Viscount Plumer (WWI). [Church Road and Oakland(s) Road are categorized with Byng Street #1027.]
Plymouth	Road	Current	Named for Plymouth, England.
Prince Andrew	Place	Current	Named for the second son of Queen Elizabeth II and Prince Philip.
Prince Edward	Drive	Current	Named for the youngest son of Queen Elizabeth II and Prince Philip.

Street Name	Type	Status	Description
Prospect	Place	Current	Originally Prospect Street. Changed in 1921. "One other special feature is the actual layout of Prospect Place, which is undoubtedly the one piece of urban design by F.M. Rattenbury within Oak Bay's boundaries. Designed virtually as a private drive, Oak Bay Avenue was continued (as Prospect Place) through a street of houses by name architects to the gates of Rattenbury's own home."
Prospect	Street	Historic	Now Prospect Place.
Quimper	Street	Current	Named for Sub-Lieutenant Manuel Quimper of the Spanish Navy who explored local waters in 1790. Was Gonzales Avenue - near the Chinese Cemetary, at Harling Point. Name changed in 1928.
Radcliffe	Lane	Current	Originally Island View Lane and later changed to Bold Point Lane. Origin unknown.
Ranier	Lane	Historic	Possible views of Mount Rainier. Now Hood Lane.
Rattenbury	Place	Current	Named for F.M. Rattenbury, architect for the Parliament Buildings in Victoria, early Oak Bay alderman and reeve in 1913.
Redwood	Avenue	Current	Named by Hudson's Bay Company - reference to sequoia trees of Cedar Hill area.
Renfrew	Road	Current	Named by Hudson's Bay Company. Possibly Renfrew, Scotland or family name.
Ripon	Road	Current	Originally York Road. Changed in 1928. Possibly for Captain Ripon of the CPR Coast Steamship service, a prominent figure in the early years or the place Ripon, England.
Robert	Street	Historic	To the west of the Exhibition Grounds into Saanich. To the east of the Grounds, the road was called Wakefield. Now both are called Allenby Street.
Rock	Road	Historic	Esplanade near Cattle Point. 1911
Rosario	Street	Current	Earlier called Walter, Haro. Derived from Rosario Strait.
Roslyn	Road	Current	Originally Pleasant Avenue.
Runnymede	Avenue	Current	Named for Runnymede, England. Historic/anecdotal - Salubrious Avenue.
Runnymede	Place	Current	Named for Runnymede, England.
Rutland	Road	Current	Originally Suffolk Road. Possibly named for County of Rutland, England.
San Carlos	Avenue	Current	Possibly after California resort town. Incorporates Patio Court.
Sandowne	Road	Current	Named by Hudson's Bay Company. Another of the 'downe' roads.
Saratoga	Avenue	Historic	After resort town Saratoga, N.Y. Now Windsor Road.
Satellite	Street	Current	Derived from name of Satellite Channel. Original driveway to a summer camp (home). Historic names were Belmont Street and Herrick Street.
Scott	Avenue	Historic	Named for early developer. Now Dufferin Avenue.
Seagull	Avenue	Historic	The northern end of Lincoln Road. Southern end was called Second Street.
Seaview	Avenue	Historic	Now a portion of Dalhousie Road. From Musgrave Street to the sea at The Esplanade.
Second	Street	Historic	Southern end of Lincoln Road. Northern end was called Seagull Avenue.
Shady	Lane	Current	Just what it is! Next to Bowker Creek off of Beach Drive.
Sherringham	Place	Current	Possibly Sherringham, England.
Shore	Road	Historic	Section of Beach Drive from Bowker Creek to the Uplands.
Shore	Drive	Historic	Section of Beach Drive from Bowker Creek to the Uplands.
Shoreway		Historic	Section of Beach Drive from Bowker Creek to the Uplands.
Smythe	Street	Current	Origin unknown.
Somass	Drive	Current	Origin unknown.
Somerset	Road	Historic	Now Nottingham Road.
Southdowne	Road	Current	Named by Hudson's Bay Company. Another of the 'downe' roads. Uplands.
St. Andrew	Street	Historic	Changed to Oliver Street in 1921. Named for W.E. Oliver, first reeve of Oak Bay in 1906.
St. Ann	Street	Current	After Saint Ann and possibly Sisters of St. Ann.
St. David	Street	Current	Welsh Saint.
St. Denis	Street	Current	French Saint. Original survey crossed Windsor Park.
St. George	Street	Historic	North part of Monterey Avenue from McNeill Avenue to Oak Bay Avenue.
St. Henry	Street	Historic	Original survey crossed Windsor Park west of St. Denis Street. [Never completed?]
St. James	Street	Historic	Transit Road north of McNeill Avenue to Newport Avenue.
St. Louis	Street	Current	After Louis IX, only canonized King of France.
St. Lulie	Street	Historic	Now Lulie Street. Site of early Oak Bay landfill.

Street Name	Type	Status	Description
St. Patrick	Street	Current	Irish Saint.
Stonehewer	Place	Current	Part of the Kildonan estate (931 Foul Bay Road) of John Sutherland. Named after a former Sutherland residence, Stonehewer House.
Suffolk	Road	Historic	Now Rutland Road.
Sunny	Lane	Current	Origin unknown.
Sunrise	Avenue	Historic	Eastern part of King George Terrace from Sunny Lane to Beach Drive.
Sunset	Avenue	Current
Surrey	Road	Current	Named for Surrey, England.
Sutherland	Road	Current	Original name Jutland. Named for John Sutherland, early resident and a member of early Oak Bay council.
Swanson	Place	Current	Named after John Swanson (1827-72), HBC master of Beaver, Cowlitz and Enterprise shipping vessels.
Sylvan	Lane	Current	Descriptive.
Tarn	Place	Current	Origin unknown.
Theatre	Lane	Current	Named for the Oak Bay Theatre which closed in 1985.
Third	Street	Historic	Now Heron Street and Haultain Street as there were two Third Streets in Oak Bay at one time.
Thistle	Street	Historic	Now a portion of Dalhousie Road, from Eastdowne Road (historic Willows Road) to Cadboro Bay Road.
Thompson	Avenue	Current	Possibly named for explorer David Thompson.
Thorpe	Place	Current	Origin unknown.
Tinto	Street	Current	Possibly Tinto, Scotland.
Tod	Road	Historic	Now Cranmore Road.
Tod	Road	Current	Originally the driveway from Cadboro Bay Road to the home of John Tod, Chief Factor of the Hudson's Bay Company. The home (Oak Bay House) still exists on Heron Street. Also Tod Lane.
Topp	Avenue	Current	Named after local developer or for C.H. Topp, a former city engineer of Victoria.
Townley	Street	Current	Name given to a Saanich street of which the one in Oak Bay is a continuation. Possibly named for an early resident Newton Townley Burdick, active in real estate and reeve of Oak Bay in 1918.
Transit	Road	Current	After surveyor's instrument or describing transit road to McNeill Bay land fill? North of McNeill Avenue to Newport Avenue called St. James Street.
University	Woods	Current	Originally part of Hudson's Bay Woods. Proximity to the University of Victoria?
Uplands	Road	Current	After HBC Uplands Farm and subdivision.
Uplands	Place	Current
Upper Terrace	Road	Current	For location.
Valdez	Place	Current	Named for Captain Valdez, an early Spanish explorer.
Victoria	Avenue	Current	Named for Queen Victoria. Originally in two sections: Laurel Street from Beach Drive to McNeill Avenue and Myrtle Street north of McNeill Avenue.
Wakefield	Road	Historic	Off Exhibition Grounds to the east. Now Allenby Street. To the west of the Grounds this road was called Robert Street.
Walter	Street	Historic	Was also Haro. Now Rosario Street.
Warwick		Historic	Suggested for Lulie Street.
Weald	Road	Current	Area of Kent, England.
Wessex	Close	Current	From Wessex, England.
Wessex	Crescent	Current	From Wessex, England.
West Thompson	Avenue	Historic	Now Neil Street. Continuation of Thompson Avenue running from Cadboro Bay Road to Foul Bay Road and continuing into Saanich.
Westdowne	Road	Current	Named by Hudson's Bay Company. Westerly road of the subdivision. Another one of the "downe" roads.
Willow	Crescent	Historic	From Willow Road (now Eastdowne Road) to Bowker Avenue. Now Cadboro Bay Road.
Willows	Road	Historic	From Cadboro Bay Road to the Fairgrounds at Haultain Street. Changed to Willows Road in 1928. Now Eastdowne Road.

Street Name	Type	Status	Description
Willows	Road	Historic	Was Willow Road. Now is Eastdowne Road.
Wilmot	Place	Current	Originally driveway to Wilmot House, home of Joseph Despard Pemberton Jr.
Windsor	Road	Current	Originally named Saratoga Avenue after resort town Saratoga, New York. Renamed 1921-22 for the Royal House of Windsor.
Woodburn	Avenue	Current	Named by Hudson's Bay Company. Scottish and north English name.
Woodhouse	Road	Current	Named for former reeve, W.L. Woodhouse, 1941-45.
Woodlawn	Crescent	Current	An early subdivision off Monterey Crescent/Avenue.
Wootton	Crescent	Current	Named for former reeve, R.A.B. Wootton, 1948-49.
Yale	Street	Current	After James Murray Yale, 1798-1871, Chief Trader for the HBC at Fort Langley.
York	Road	Historic	Uplands. Now Ripon Road.
York	Place	Current	Named for York, England. Original Oak Bay Avenue address.
Zela	Street	Current	Ancient city, site of Battle of Zela, 67 BC.