MAYOR'S REMARKS:

3. Mayor's Remarks

Mayor Murdoch reminded residents that the Remembrance Day ceremony from the cenotaph will be livestreamed and viewable on line through the District's website, and invited residents to provide input into the budget process through the budget survey available through the website. The Mayor advised that Oak Bay has been awarded $3.5 million through a COVID Restart Grant to offset the direct costs sustained during our response to the pandemic. The Mayor encouraged everyone to continue to be calm, be kind, be careful and to keep safe.

Mayor Murdoch then reflected on the two-year anniversary of Council's inauguration as follows:

Tonight we celebrate two years – the halfway point – of this Council's term. Like last year, I thought it worthwhile to take a couple of minutes to reflect on the last year and the work undertaken to date. I can of course only share a few examples, please see the annual report and other new reporting tools to get a more detailed view.

First, I want to acknowledge the great work done by staff, particularly over the last 7.5 months. Oak Bay runs a lean ship; because of this staff have had to really prioritize work and adapt both public spaces and working environments on a daily basis to allow services to continue. Over 400 pandemic-related service changes and projects have had to be undertaken on top of regular workload. The work undertaken by all has contributed many additional hours (and I know a lot of stress), and I want to thank all the staff: from our CAO, Ms. Varela, who has demonstrated through her servant leadership the work required to help, to the workers cleaning the public washrooms more frequently to allow them to remain open and safe for our residents, to our financial services team who found ways to move o phone or online service provision while also managing new provincial processes and tools as well. These are just a few examples of how every department, every work group, has had to adapt to keep services going and actually improve our operations in the process. On behalf of Council, our residents, our businesses, and our region: thank you municipal employees and contractors.

Second, I want to acknowledge the great work undertaken by Council and Staff working together: Every month, every week, efforts are made to improve how we run our business. I don't have time to identify every project, but I wanted to touch on transparency, fiscal responsibility, our protective services, the environment, and housing as these form core parts of our Council priorities.

Transparency:

- This was the first full year of new standardized reporting tools. These include an improved Annual Report, new quarterly reporting, new work plan reporting, Improved tracking of Council motions, and more. This reporting and true 5-year financial planning helps Council's priority-setting and budget processes, significantly clarifies how tax money is being spent (both annually and throughout the year), and even reduces our costs.
- I would like to thank the very patient volunteers on our committees and commissions. Council intended to complete the rebuild of these bodies that provide invaluable contributions to our community in the late spring but that timeline has suffered considerably with the impacts of COVID. Even worse, the bodies have been meeting rarely or not at all during this time with COVID restrictions. Thank to great work over the last few months, there are new Policies and Procedures in place, new Terms of Reference being finalized, and we are (six months later than intended) now scheduled to welcome the returning and new members of these committees and commissions in February. We know that by investing properly in these bodies, providing orientation and training, and abiding by the highest standards of openness and reporting, we will see many more decades of valuable contribution by, and to the benefit of, or community members.
- I also want to acknowledge the ongoing work that continues to improve our back-end systems to provide better online and on-demand access to information for our public... and improve our operational efficiencies as the same time.

Fiscal Responsibility:

- Council approved a 6.9% tax increase this year with almost all non-discretionary increases going to permanently fund the needed capital replacement of our pipes, roads, sidewalks, buildings, and other community assets to ensure they are here for generations. This investment now helps ensure costs can be managed in future.
- Parks and Recreation revenue saw a significant hit this year due to limited access, increased use of outdoor spaces, no access to federal subsidy programs, and more. I want to share my appreciation to the Federal and Provincial Governments for new emergency funds to help keep these activities and services open, services that contribute to both physical and mental health.

Protective Services:

- 2020 has been a difficult year for both fire and police, acting as front line supports during the pandemic that continues and is even accelerating today, with policing in North America particularly under the microscope as issues of racism and systemic discrimination have arisen, particularly in the US.
- I want to express my appreciation for the work undertaken by our professional firefighters and our police force. The high level of community support you have in Oak Bay is earned every day by your demonstration in all parts of your work the highest levels of professionalism, compassion, and fairness with those you interact with – you truly go the extra mile, and in years like this, it's especially appreciated.

Environment:

- Earlier this year a Climate Change Action Working Group, chaired by Cllr. Appleton and consisting of members of the Advisory Planning Commission, returned a number of recommendations on ways Oak Bay can help address Climate change. The top three were brought to Council for consideration and prioritization in both budget and work plans, with two others to follow for consideration in the 2021 planning process.
- The new Tree Protection Bylaw has now been enacted and will see thousands of new trees planted over the coming years.

- Each of the last two years have seen the overwhelming majority of female deer inoculated with immune-contraceptives. My thanks to staff for taking a more active role in overseeing the program, Urban Wildlife Stewardship Society (UWSS) for managing both the science and the application so necessary for the provincial sign-off, to the province for partially funding the program, and to the public who have stepped up these last two years to pre-approve access to their properties.

Housing:

- Council recently signed a lease with the Vancouver Island Refugee Centre Society (VIRCS) providing an innovative Welcome House for refugees entering the country. We are very excited to see this community-anchored model for welcoming displaced individuals and families as they make their transition to Canada.
- Oak Bay has been advocating and working with the Capital Region Hospital District (CRHD) to help ensure the Oak Bay Lodge lands stay in public hands and the site is rebuilt to meet the community and regional needs for health care and housing services. We appreciate the work undertaken by the CRHD to move this forward.
- Council initiated a Housing Framework this term to allow housing forms that meet community needs. This year the Housing Needs Report was completed (one of the first completed in the Province) and the Secondary Suites report will follow to help inform the options for that housing form. Despite the impacts of the pandemic and the ongoing state of emergency, we continue to target the end of next year for completion of the housing framework.

Culture of Collaboration:

Finally, I am making these comments in the shadow of a recent and very divisive election in the United States. We've seen the damage caused there over the last few years by a culture of blame, fear, and partisanship devolving into a narrative of "good vs. evil."

So I would like to finish tonight by expressing my appreciation to my Council colleagues for not just their hard work and thoughtful decision making on a week-by-week basis, but on their commitment to a collegial and respectful Chambers. This means having an open mind to the ideas of others, it means seeking compromise on issues, it means creating a safe environment for others to have a dissenting opinion, it means respecting the expertise of staff and input from the public, it means that we all treat each other the way we want to be treated ourselves. I know it takes a conscious effort to always hold ourselves to the highest standards both inside and outside this chamber, to make the effort to speak positively of others even in disagreement. The cost of NOT doing this is the division and anger we've seen to our south, and I just want to thank every one of you, my colleagues on Council, for making that effort every day. It's been an honour to lead this Council over the last two years.
