

OAK BAY ARTS Weekend

FALL 2026 November 13-15

Art Exhibition & Sale
Monterey Recreation Centre
1442 Monterey Ave
Saturday, Nov. 14, 2026
9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Artwork by Flo-Elle Watson

Open to the public.
Free to attend.
For more information, visit
oakbay.ca/events

OAK BAY PARKS, RECREATION & CULTURE

Cocktails & Conversations

Monterey Recreation Centre
1442 Monterey Ave
Friday, Nov. 13, 2026 — 5:00-7:00 p.m.

On Friday evening, enjoy a cocktail or mocktail as you mingle with artists working in a variety of artistic disciplines. Explore the ideas that shape their artwork, learn about their inspiration in an intimate, welcoming setting.

Oak Bay Arts Weekend — Fall Edition.

Immerse yourself in a vibrant celebration of creativity.

Connect personally with local creators, discover new favourites and purchase one-of-a-kind artworks.

Meet with artists behind the work as you enjoy a cocktail (or mocktail!) on Friday evening.

On Saturday, meet local artists, watch demonstrations and purchase artwork at the Monterey Recreation Centre.

Saturday and Sunday afternoon take a tour of Oak Bay and visit artists in their studios to learn about their artistic processes close up.

Jonathan Finlay

Kno2roX Studio is the umbrella for multimedia creative outputs consisting largely of vessels and sculptures made from wood burls (knots) and pebble stone (rocks) and other stuff too.

kno2rox.etsy.com

Margo McMicking

MarSart glass creates one of a kind homemade glass art, inspired by nature, coastal beauty, local landmarks, and the vibrant colours of Vancouver Island.

@ MarSart Glass

Margaret McIntosh

Margaret uses a variety of clay hand building techniques to create uniquely shaped pieces that feature beautiful textures. She uses monoprinting and other techniques to create engaging surface designs.

@ wildcarrotarts

Joan Wale

Joan paints in acrylic and oil on canvas inspired by nature.

Sophia Shatonsky

Sophia is a multi-media artist who works primarily in handmade ceramic sculptures and oil painting inspired by Vancouver Island's nature.

www.sophiashatonsky.com

Michael Baer

Michael has been exploring the ancient Japanese art of Kumiko for three years, and he brings a few modern twists to these traditional designs.

michaeldaervoicse.com/kumiko

Frank Thorburn

Many of Frank's wildlife images have been captured on or near the ocean and often in a kayak, but his images are not limited to any genre.

Myra Baynton

Myra works with watercolour and acrylic paint. She is inspired by local and international settings.

@ jems_by_Joan

Joan Easton
Working in watercolour, Joan loves painting florals, birds, local scenes and illuminated letters. Original pieces and cards will be available, and commissions are welcome.

@ cpurden.art

Carolyn Purden
Carolyn produces wheel-thrown ceramics that provide a canvas for colourful glazes that combine to produce striking hues reflective of the earth, water and skies of Vancouver Island.

avisrasmussen.com

Avis Rasmussen
Avis paints watercolours outdoors and studio oil painting from sketches. She is a member of the Oak Bay Community Artists Society, and the Victoria Sketch Club.

Arlene Davey

Arlene uses the influence of Chinese Brush Painting in her floral and landscape compositions.

oakbayartists.com/arlene-davey.html

@ my.colour.stories

Cinda Chavich
Cinda is an artisan weaver creating wearable art using rigid heddle looms - specifically one-of-a-kind scarves in unique colours and textures, based on the natural wool, cotton, linen and mixed fibres, which she collects from a variety of sources, often weaving with local and reclaimed yarn.

@ Peridotulips

Joanie McCorry
Joanie has been creating original, handmade art greeting cards for over 3 decades. She is focused on upcycling and repurposing everything. She creates her cards with things such as scrabble tiles and postage stamps, to leave a softer footprint on our earth.

margaretcase.ca

Margaret Case
Margaret uses watercolours, inks, salt, acrylic paint, spray paint, pens and ink - all intertwined in the artwork, showing complicated interconnections between natural elements.

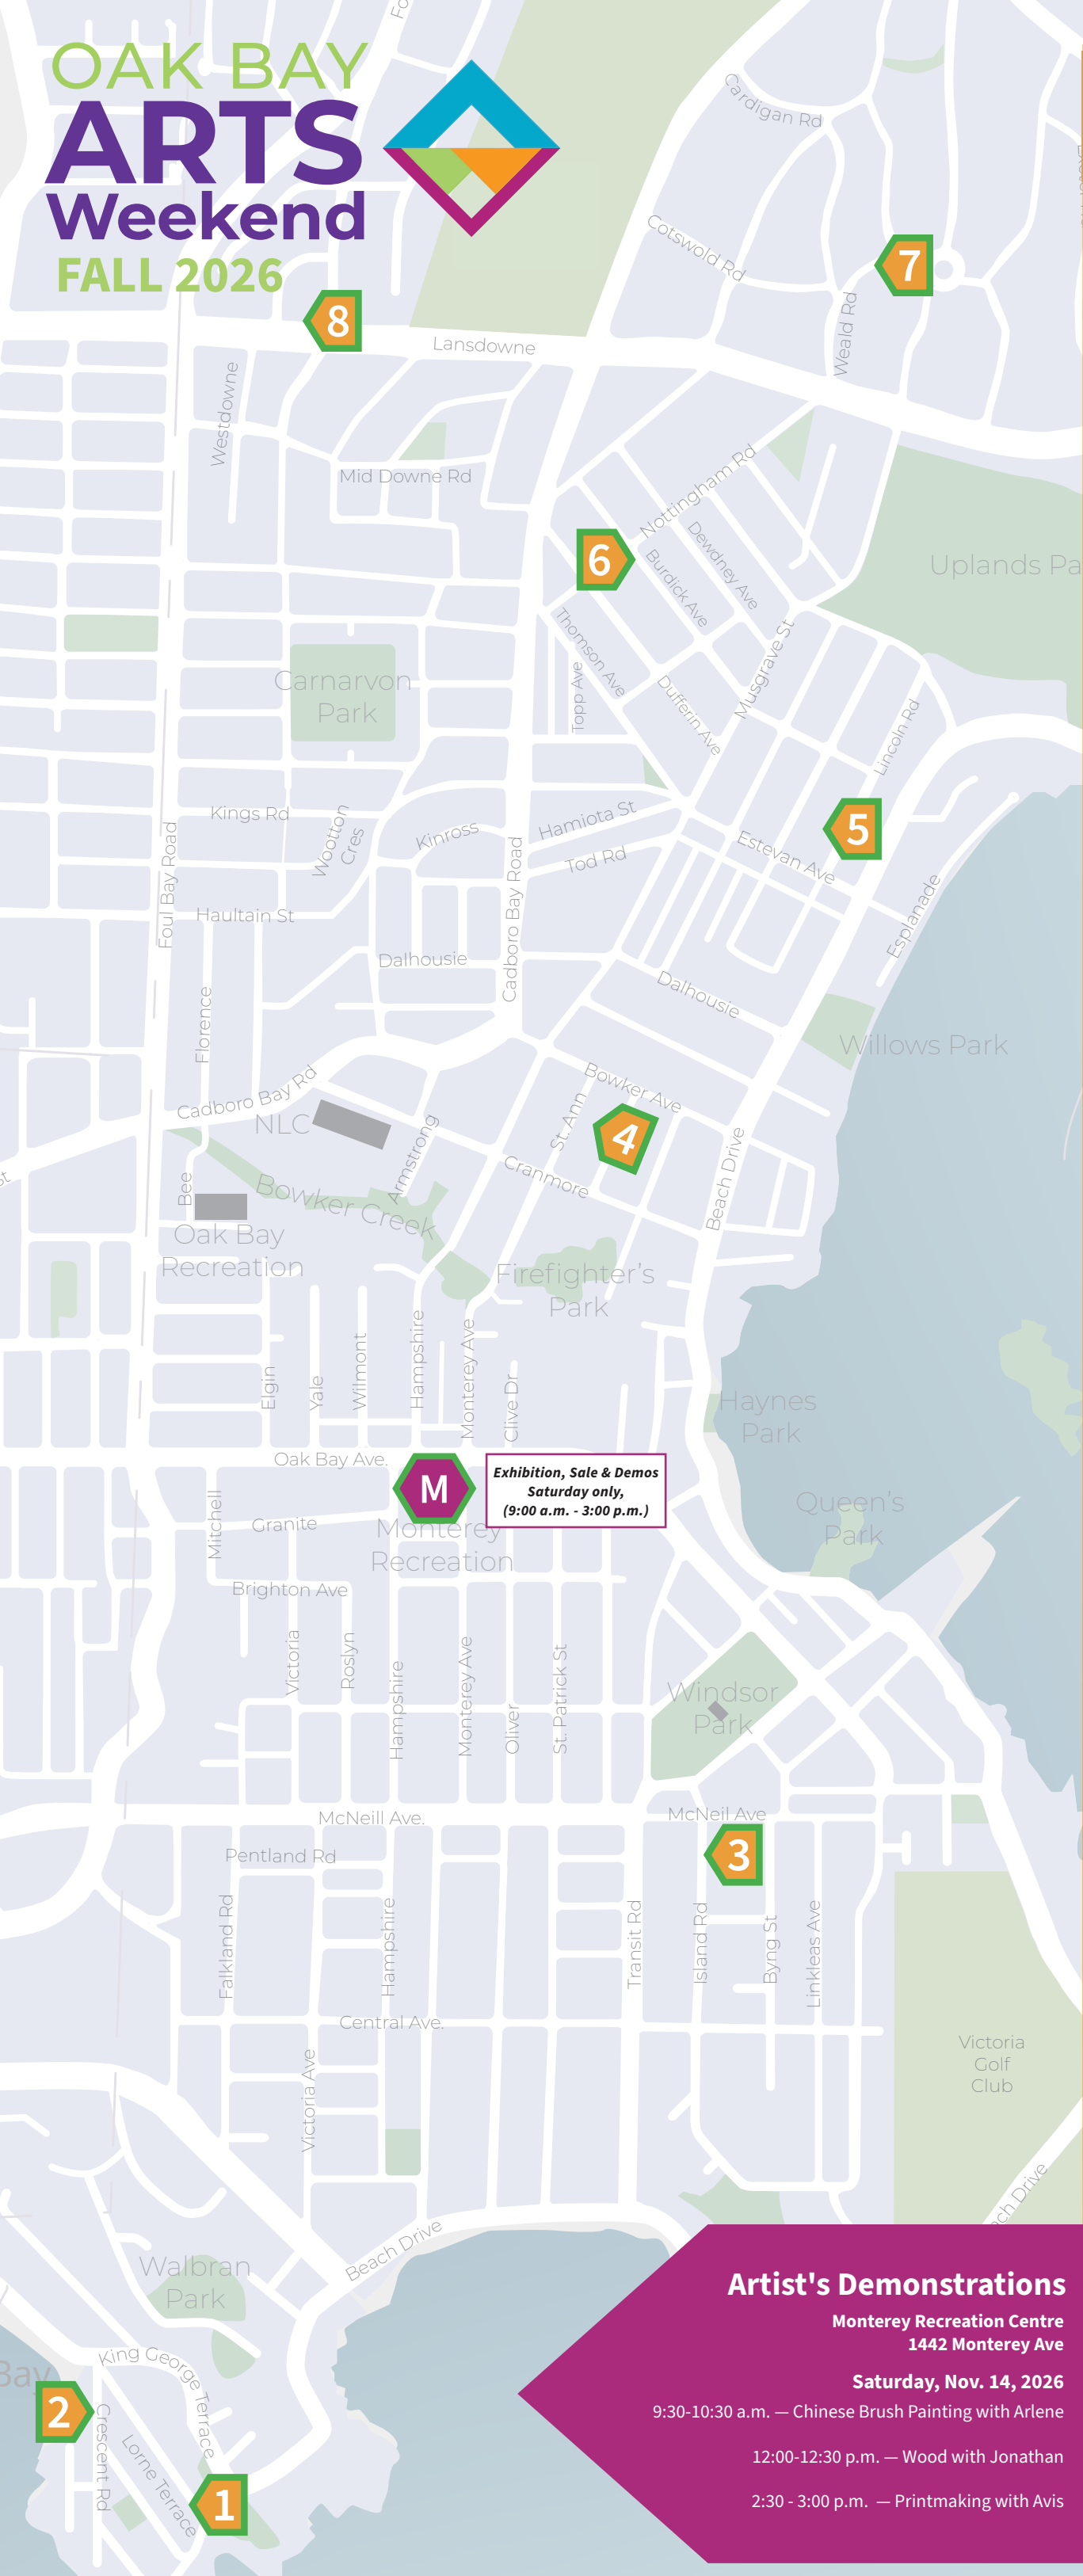

gypsydesignworks

Annette Dutton
Annette is a fine art designer using oil and acrylics on canvas and wood, and small interior decor pieces such as gift and memory boxes, lighthouses.

carolmcgintyartist.com

Carol McGinty
Carol aims to tell a story about place and time, and is always in search of a story that needs telling. Colour, form, light and texture are her chosen tools.

OAK BAY
ARTS
Weekend
FALL 2026

Studio Tour

Saturday & Sunday
Nov. 14-15, 2026 (12:00 - 4:00 p.m.)

Ed Hughes

Ed has been painting with oils and acrylics for a lifetime. His work stretches through full abstraction to figurative realism. Come and meet in his beatiful Harling Point studio.

eghughes.ca
@eghughesart
2140 Lorne Terrace

1

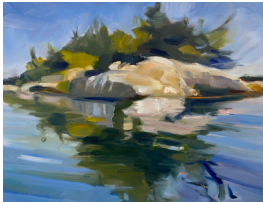

Stephanie Malahoff

Stephanie is an abstract and landscape artist working in all mediums, primarily oil. Inspired by our extraordinary west coast, she recently is interpret large landscapes within small canvases.

2014 Crescent Road

2

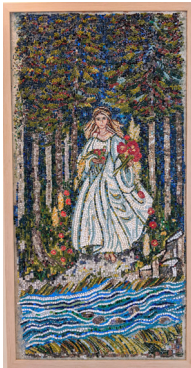

Marie-Andree Allison

Marie-Andrée Allison is an internationally recognized multi-media artist who focuses on bringing ancient techniques into her contemporary works.

marieandreeallisonfineartstudio.com
962 Island Road

3

Flo-Elle Watson

Flo-Elle draws and paints on a canvas of Porcelain. Her art is detailed, or free formed. A delightful addition to your home or office decor. Food, oven & micro safe.

@floelle.artist
1871 St. Ann Street

4

Nike Hatzidimou

Nike Hatzidimou is a textile artist and fashion designer. Working with natural dyes/eco printing she captures unique images on linen. Mindful and considered with an element of chance, her work explores themes of ancestry, identity and fashion.

shiftymother.com
@shiftymother
2560 Lincoln Road

5

Malene Foyd

Growing up in Denmark surrounded by a culture shaped by craftsmanship and design, Malene developed an early appreciation for form, function, and natural materials. Malene creates vessels in porcelain and stoneware.

malenefoyd.bigcartel.com
@malenefoyd
2771 Burdick Avenue

6

Victor Lotto

An award winning artist Victor paints landscapes in watercolour and acrylic. His work resides in collections in Canada, the USA and Europe. Victor was recently awarded a lifetime membership in the Art Gallery of Greater Victoria.

victorlotto.ca
2605 Cotswold Road

7

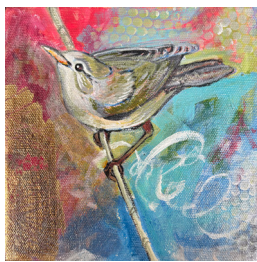

Jennifer McIntyre

Jennifer is an experienced painter and printmaker. She uses mixed media to create invented still lifes and landscapes. She loves to play with perspective, pattern and colour.

jennifermcintyre.com
@colourways_art
2150 Lansdowne Road

8

Artist's Demonstrations

Monterey Recreation Centre
1442 Monterey Ave

Saturday, Nov. 14, 2026

9:30-10:30 a.m. — Chinese Brush Painting with Arlene

12:00-12:30 p.m. — Wood with Jonathan

2:30 - 3:00 p.m. — Printmaking with Avis